1. Click on button 'Setting'

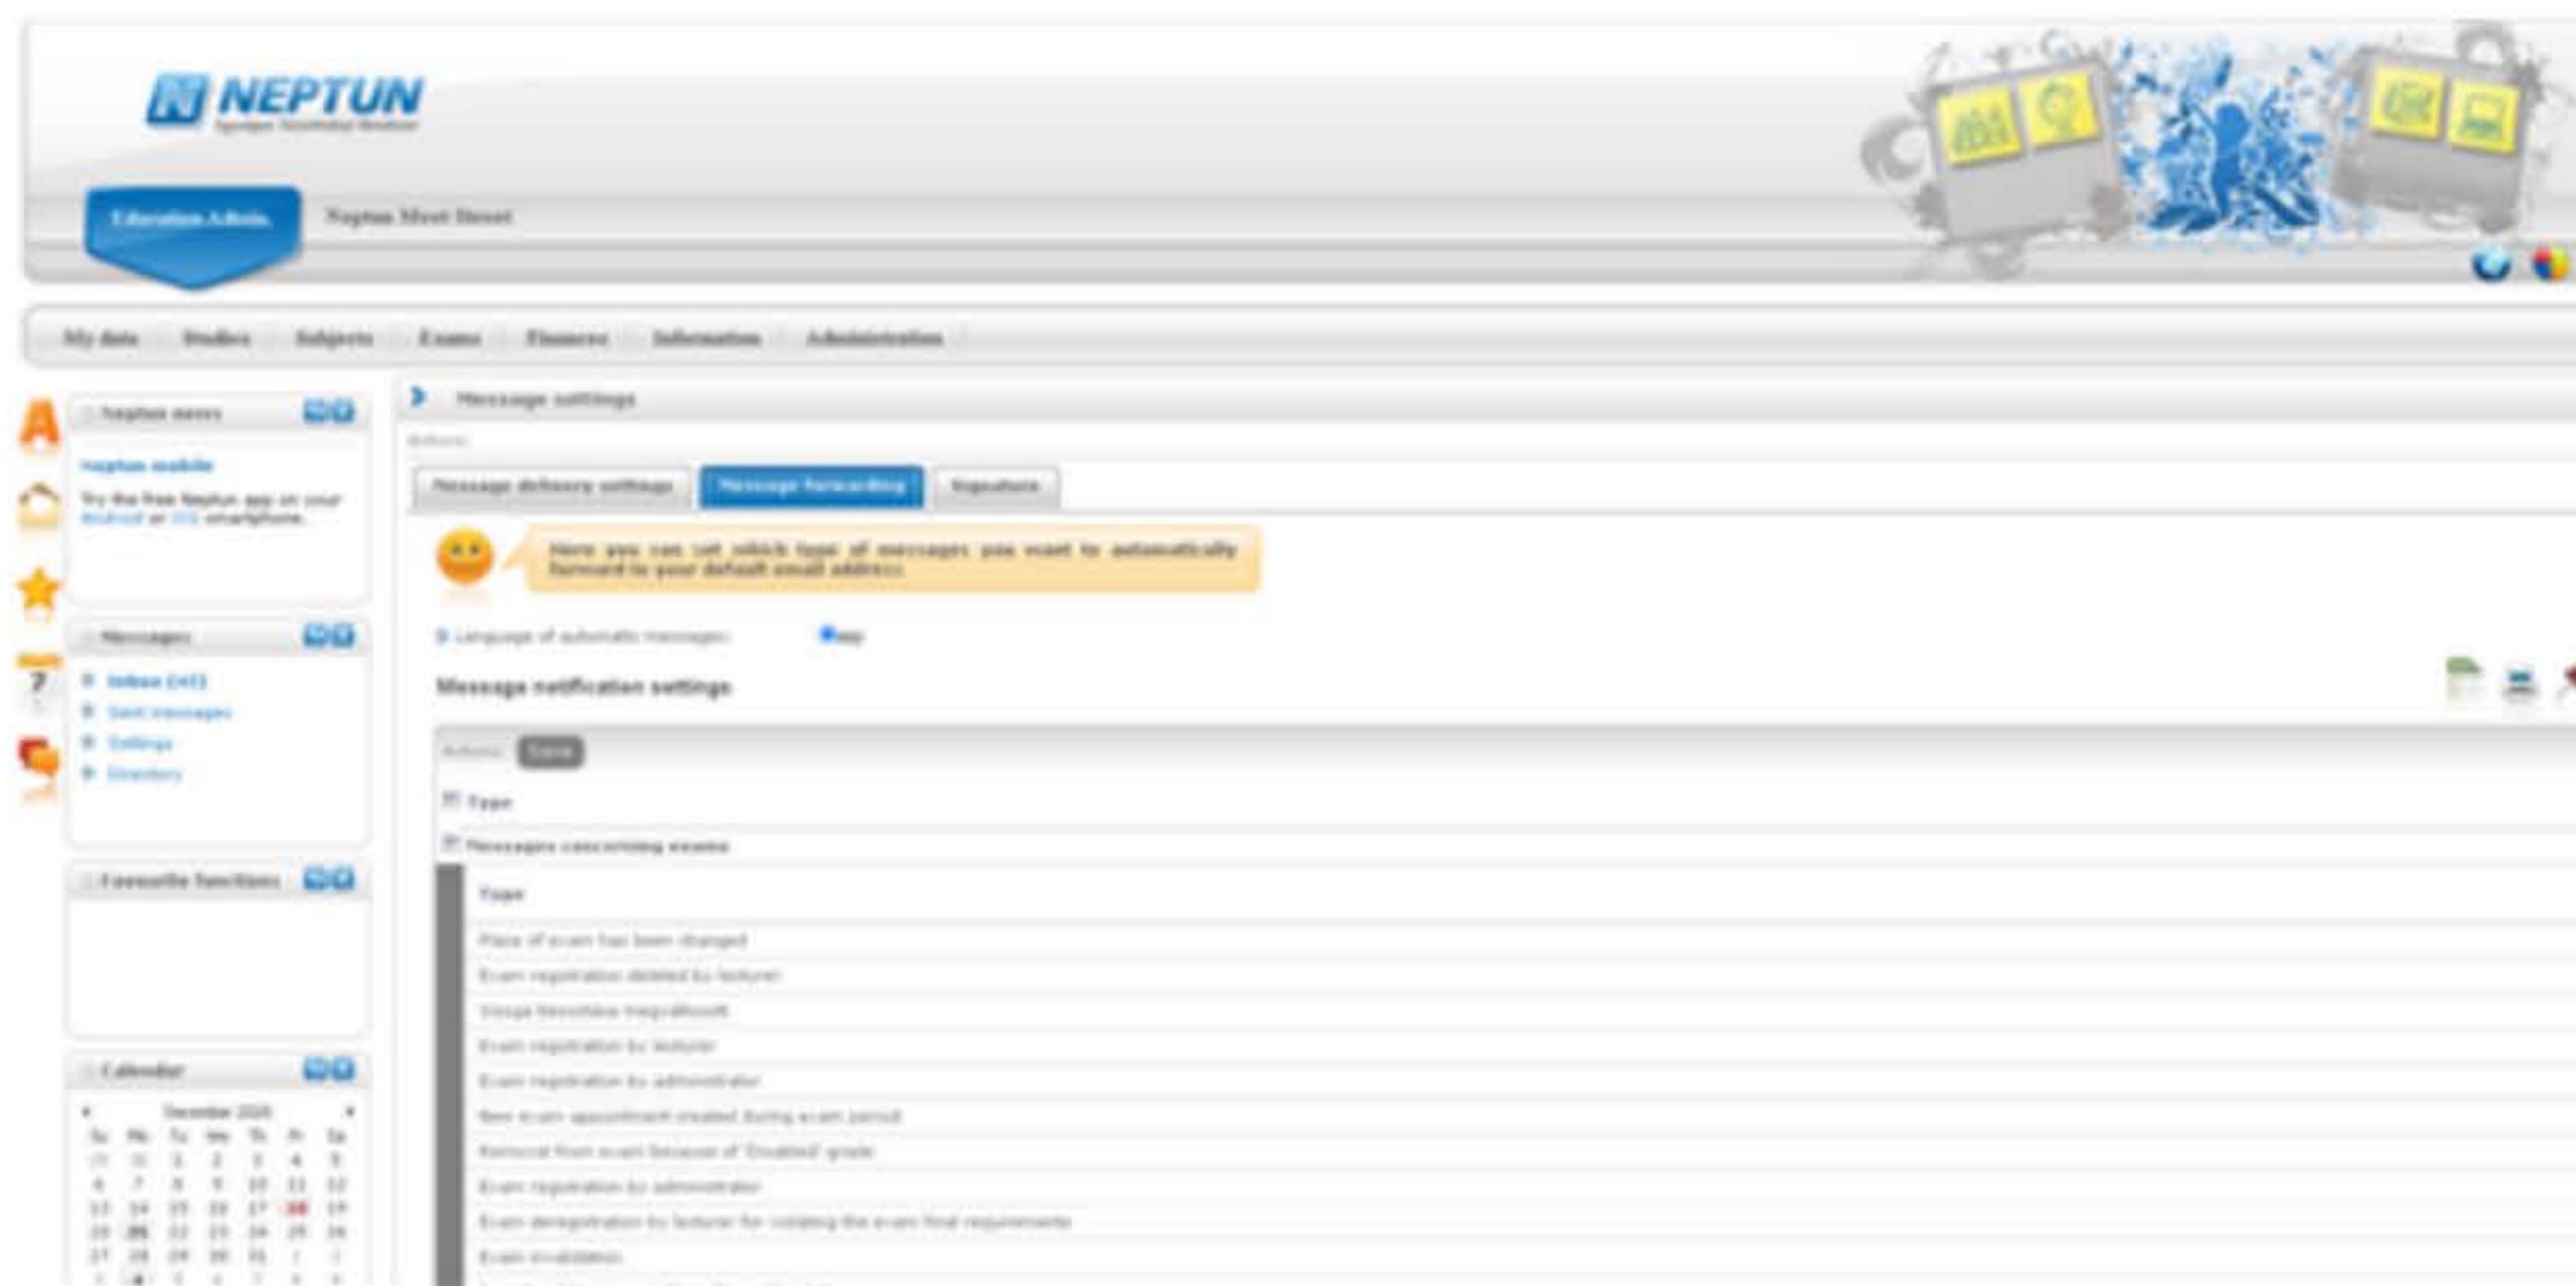

The screenshot shows the NEPTUN user interface. At the top, there is a header with the NEPTUN logo and the user's name 'Kajetan Most Slonek'. Below the header is a navigation bar with tabs: 'My data', 'Studies', 'Subjects', 'Exams', 'Flowers', 'Information', and 'Administration'. On the left side, there is a sidebar with several sections: 'Neptun news', 'Neptun mobile', 'Messages', 'Favorite functions', and 'Calendar'. The 'Messages' section is expanded, showing a list of messages. The 'Settings' option in the 'Messages' section is highlighted with a red box.

2. Tap on tab „Message forwarding“)

The screenshot shows the NEPTUN user interface with the 'Message settings' section expanded. The 'Message forwarding' tab is highlighted with a red box. Below the tab, there are options for 'Message delivery settings' and 'Signature'. The 'Message forwarding' section has a toggle for 'Permit message sending for all students' set to 'Permit'. Below this, there is a section for 'Exceptions' with a table showing 'Student's neptun code' and 'Exception type'. The table is currently empty.

3. When you are on tab Message Forwarding, you can set to receive messages about certain types of Neptun operations. Mark the types that you want to receive (our suggestion is to mark ALL of them).

The screenshot shows the NEPTUN user interface with the 'Message notification settings' section expanded. The 'Message forwarding' tab is highlighted with a red box. Below the tab, there is a notification box that says 'Here you can set which type of messages you want to automatically forward to your default email address.' Below this, there is a section for 'Message notification settings' with a list of message types and checkboxes. The checkboxes are all checked.
